

Vacaville Festival of Trees

November 15-December 3, 2021

The 31st annual Vacaville Festival of Trees is in full swing, with dozens of local stores and offices displaying large and small, fully decorated Christmas trees that are being sold via an online auction to raise money for the Opportunity House homeless shelter.

The auction closes at midnight, December 3, and trees will be delivered December 4 and 5. To bid on a tree, or to obtain a map of locations where trees can be viewed, go to the Festival of Trees' webpage, www.vacavillefot.org.

As has been the case since the first Festival was launched in 1991, the fundraiser's success depends on an entire community of sponsors. We sincerely appreciate everyone's efforts, from major corporate sponsors to small businesses and individuals. You can help us thank our sponsors by supporting them throughout the year.

This year's major sponsors include Kaiser Permanente, McGuire Realty, Travis Credit Union, Cross Country Mortgage, Reynolds Law LLP, Hancock & Faller CPAs, Assemblymember Jim Frazier, I-80 Forklift, NorthBay, Jim & Anne Gemmer Family, Essenza Salon, WestAmerica Bank, Triad Lagoon Valley, John & Diane Thompson, Dutch Bros. and Budget Blinds.

We are also grateful to our in-kind contributors, including Sunrise Banquet Hall, Y2 Creative Solutions, Stems Florist and Journey Coffee.

Festival wouldn't be Festival without the donors and decorators of our trees, and the businesses that so graciously provide space to display them. The following pages list them all.

Other ways to support the 2021 Festival of Trees

Vacaville Festival of Treats and Holiday Bake Shoppe

With the Festival of Trees' traditional community bake sale still on hiatus because of the pandemic, Opportunity House's Cookies for a Cause has stepped in to offer both ready-to-eat favorites and ready-to-bake frozen cookie dough balls in holiday flavors through December 31.

The Festival of Treats' already-baked goodies, such as Jumbo Rice Crispy Treats and Whoopie Pies, also can be packaged for gift-giving.

Orders can be placed online via VacavilleFoT.org.

Winter WonderWalk

On Thursday, December 2, from 5-8 p.m., Downtown Vacaville and Festival of Trees will host the first-ever Winter WonderWalk benefiting Opportunity House. It's a chance for the public to experience the beauty and magic of the Festival of Trees while strolling Downtown Vacaville during the holiday season.

Sip on wine or hot chocolate while you, your family and friends meander through the sights and sounds of Christmas filling the streets of Downtown Vacaville. Enjoy music from the Will C. Wood Sylvan Singers, Kairos Choir, the Community Presbyterian Church's Fellowship of the Ringers handbell choir and strolling carolers from Valley Church. Visit with Santa. Do some early holiday shopping at Downtown businesses.

Tickets for this rain-or-shine event are $20/per person (must be 21+) and include your choice of a souvenir wine glass for tastings or a souvenir mug with spiked hot chocolate for the adults. $10 tickets are available for those under 21 or Designated Drivers and include a souvenir mug of Hot Chocolate. They can be purchased online at DowntownVacaville.com, in person at the Downtown Vacaville BID office, 313 Parker Street, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays; by phone at 707-451-2100; and, if supplies last, the night of the event in Town Square.
